U.S. National Longitudinal Lesbian Family Study: From Reagan to Trump

Dr. Nanette Gartrell

Williams Institute, UCLA School of Law

The U.S. National Longitudinal Lesbian Family Study has been following a cohort of planned lesbian families for 32 years. Dr. Gartrell will provide an overview of the study results in the context of the political backdrop in the U.S. from the time that the study began to the present, including data from the most recent wave of data collection (6th) when the offspring were 25 years old.
